SEARCH WARRANT

CASE NUMBER: 09-m-494

TO: THOMAS DOYLE, Special Agent with the United States Secret Service:

Affidavit having been made before me to Special Agent Thomas Doyle of the United States Secret Service, who has reason to believe that on the premises known as 4046 Oakland Avenue, Apt. C, Shorewood, Wisconsin, which is an apartment located above the Bayshore Veterinary Clinic. The building is constructed of brownish brick and consists of four separate apartments. An entrance located on the building's western side provides access from Oakland Avenue to Apartment C.

in the State and Eastern District of Wisconsin, there is now concealed certain property, namely;

SEE ATTACHED LIST OF ITEMS TO BE SEIZED, all of which are evidence violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 371, 1343, 1344, and 1349.

I am satisfied that the affidavit and any recorded testimony establish probable cause to believe that the property described is now concealed on the premises above-described and establish grounds for the issuance of this warrant.

ATTACHMENT A

Description of items to be seized:

Records, in whatever form kept or stored (i.e., paper, computer, electronic, or any other data storage medium), including, reflecting, or consisting of any of the following:

1. personal identification records and information,
2. financial records and information,
3. credit card records, including convenience checks,
4. receipts and invoices, including receipts of credit card purchases,
5. jewelry,
6. debit card records,
7. incorporation records,
8. employment records,
9. tax returns and tax return information,
10. address lists,
11. phone records,
12. travel records,
13. Shipping records, address lists, and address labels,
14. Calendars and diaries, and
15. correspondence, mailings, notes, or email messages concerning any of the topics enumerated above.

In conducting the search authorized by this warrant, if a computer is found, the agents shall seize the computer and shall promptly make an image of the hard drive. In searching the hard drive and any data storage media, the agents shall make reasonable efforts to use computer search methodologies that avoid searching files, documents or other electronically stored information that is not identified in the warrant. To that end, the search procedure of the electronic data contained within the computer and computer media, whether performed on site or in a laboratory, or other controlled environment, may include the following techniques (the following is a non-exclusive list, as other search procedures within the scope of the warrant may be used):

- a. Surveying various file "directories" and the individual files they contain to identify other pertinent files such as chat logs or emails which may contain data that falls within the list of items to be seized as set forth herein (analogous to looking at the outside of a file cabinet for the markings it contains and opening a drawer believed to contain pertinent files);
- b. Opening files and cursorily examining them in order to determine their precise contents;
- c. Searching for and attempting to recover any deleted, hidden, or encrypted data to determine whether that data falls within the list of items to be seized as set forth herein (any data that is encrypted and unreadable will not be returned unless law enforcement personnel have determined that the data is not (1) an instrumentality of the offenses, (2) a fruit of the criminal activity, (3) contraband, (4) otherwise unlawfully possessed, or (5) evidence of the offenses specified above);

- d. Performing key word searches through all electronic storage areas to determine whether occurrences of language contained in such storage areas exist that pertain to the subject matter of the investigation; and
- e. Performing any other data analysis technique that may be necessary to locate and retrieve records of the types described in attachment A.
